

Margin Manager

Location: Chicago, IL

Chicago based Futures Commission Merchant Risk Department is expanding its Risk Department and looking for an experienced individual with exceptional computer skills that will report to the Risk Officer.

Responsibilities:

- Analyze and update existing reports of client risk data derived from business software.
- Assist in development and implementation of periodic reviews and monitoring of customer trading activity and positions. Monitoring and recognizing client margin calls and interacting with Brokers.
- Learn the regulatory landscape, especially regarding applicable new or amended laws and regulations and assist in the development and implementation of firm procedures in response to new or changed rules and regulations.
- Review programs and reports resulting from client trading activity.
- Assist Risk Officer with various regulatory requirements.

Candidate Skills/Requirements:

- 5+ years of FCM (or equivalent) experience is required
- Self-motivated, high level of dependability, organization, attention to detail, and strong writing skills required. Candidate must be able to efficiently multi-task in a fast-paced and challenging environment.
- Strong computer skills including the ability to administer and build reports in Microsoft Access, business management software. Extensive experience using Microsoft Excel and PowerPoint also required.

Application: Please send inquiries and resume for consideration to sslomka@straitsfinancial.com